Mr. Bukosky/Mr. Pfeil - Frequently Asked Trip Questions

Q: Does my child have to go on this trip?

A: Absolutely not. While we encourage your child to fundraise to help offset the cost, as we want as many students to go as possible. Regardless, this trip is not required or graded.

Q: After making my first payment (security deposit), what if I can no longer go on the trip?

A: Unfortunately, you will still be required to pay the remainder of the cost of your trip. This is to ensure that all other students will be able to attend the trip. Situations like this are non-negotiable under any circumstance.

Q: I can't meet the payment deadlines. Am I able to pay the whole cost of the trip at the very end before departure?

A: No. Unfortunately, we are required to make installment payments to various places to ensure we have enough finances to cover the cost of hotel rooms, bus seats, tickets, etc. for everyone. Therefore, all payment deadlines must be adhered to.

Q: Can I pay the full cost of the trip up front?

A: Yes. If you are able to, please feel free to do so.

Q: Can marching band booster money be used to pay for the trip?

A: Yes, only for Marching Band students attending the trip.

Q: What kind of safety measures and supervision will be in place during the duration of the trip?

A: All students will be constantly supervised by GJSD board approved chaperones/teachers. All luggage and carry-on bags will be checked by staff members prior to our departure. Students will be "taped" into their hotel rooms each night and will be monitored by a security guard while at the hotel. Frequent chaperone check-ins will also be enforced. As always, this is a school sponsored function, and therefore all expectations found in the GJSD Code of Conduct will remain in effect at all times.

Q: Will my child's overall grade in your class affect their opportunity to go on the trip?

A: Yes. As per my syllabus, all students are required to maintain at least a C average for only their participation grade in order to attend any trip. I reserve the right to not allow a student to attend prior to 24 hours before departure. As stated above, no refund will be given.

Q: If my child raises more money than necessary, what will happen to it?

A: Only seniors will be allowed to "zero out" their account before the trip happens. A written request must be submitted. All other 9-11 grade students will have their money stay in their account for use in future trips and functions until graduation. Please see "Student Account Guidelines" within your ensemble syllabus for more information or see the band booster treasurer.

Q: What if my child moves before the trip?

A: They are still responsible for paying their full cost of the trip or finding someone "new" to take their spot. Any money left in their account will not be refunded and automatically be used for general trip related expenses.
